How this book works

The story of A Bus for Miss Moss has been written for you to read with your child. You take turns to read:

You read these words.

Your child reads these words.

You don't have to finish the story in one session. If your child is getting tired, put a marker in the page and come back to it later.

You can find out more about helping your child with this book, and with reading in general, on pages 30-31.

Miss Moss, Miss Moss could never keep still.

Miss Moss had
a mill on a hill.

She worked so hard,
milling sack after sack...

Bad luck!
Miss Moss had
a bad back.

"I think it is time to sell my mill."

"I cannot mill
if I am ill."

So she moved house —
and what a shock!

Miss Moss had
a hut on a rock.

She lay in bed with a terrible cough –

“I had a sun deck
but it fell off.”

"And there's no sun when the fog comes up."

"I am sick of fog –
I am fed up!"

Now she lives in the meadow
right next to us:

Miss Moss has
a bed in a bus.

With trees in an orchard,
one to ten...

A pig in a pen,
and a duck
and a hen.

And it's easy to go
on a trip, you know –

“I can pack up
and off I go.”

Miss Moss is better,
she sits in the sun.

Miss Moss has a lot of fun.

Guidance notes

Usborne Very First Reading is a series of books, specially developed for children who are learning to read. In the early books in the series, you and your child take turns to read, and your child steadily builds the knowledge and confidence to read alone.

The words for your child to read in A Bus for Miss Moss introduce these seven letters or letter-combinations:

Your child will soon grasp that ff has the same sound as f, ll as l and ss as s. These are often among the first letters that children learn to read at school. Later books in the series gradually introduce more letters, sounds and spelling patterns, while reinforcing the ones your child already knows.

You'll find lots more information about the structure of the series, advice on helping your child with reading, extra practice activities and games on the Very First Reading website,* www.usborne.com/veryfirstreading

Some questions and answers

- Why do I need to read with my child?
Sharing stories and taking turns makes reading an enjoyable and fun activity for children. It also helps them to develop confidence and reading stamina, and to take part in an exciting story using very few words.
- When is a good time to read?
Choose a time when you are both relaxed, but not too tired, and there are no distractions. Only read for as long as your child wants to – you can always try again another day.
- What if my child gets stuck?
Don't simply read the problem word yourself, but prompt your child and try to find the right answer together. Similarly, if your child makes a mistake, go back and look at the word together. Don't forget to give plenty of praise and encouragement.
- We've finished, now what do we do?
It's a good idea to read the story several times to give your child more practice and confidence. Then you can try reading The Perfect Pet at the same level or, when your child is ready, go on to Book 4 in the series.
